Rental and Utility Assistance Community Days Open to Lancaster County Residents

LANCASTER, PA (September 13, 2021) – While the CDC Eviction Moratorium officially ended on August 26, rental and utility assistance will continue through September of 2022.

If an applicant needs assistance with the application process or has questions, they can visit <http://www.lancasterhelp.rent/> to access helpful resources or call the helpline at 717-590-3101.

Lancaster County residents who are interested in receiving in-person assistance can register for a time to stop by an upcoming Lancaster Rent & Utility Community Day.

The July event was a success, as staff members were able to help 257 households. As a result, the Eviction Prevention Network is hosting the following three additional events to accommodate a variety of locations throughout the county:

Lancaster Community Day:

- Date/Time: Thursday, September 16 from 12 – 5:30 p.m.
- Location: Clipper Magazine Stadium (home of the Lancaster Barnstormers), located at 650 N Prince St, Lancaster, PA 17603
- Registration link: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/B7VWF6X>

Columbia Community Day:

- Date/Time: Monday, September 20 from 3 – 7 p.m.
- Location: Clipper Magazine Stadium (home of the Lancaster Barnstormers), located at 650 N Prince St, Lancaster, PA 17603
- Registration link: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/B7VWF6X>

Northern Lancaster Community Day:

- Date/Time: Friday October 1 from 2 – 7 p.m.
- Location: Ephrata Public Library, located at 550 S Reading Rd, Ephrata, PA 17522

- Registration link: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/K39VXMC>

During the event, staff will help attendees:

- Start an application
- Review the status of their existing application and understand next steps to complete the process
- Update an application
- Upload documents
- Answer questions

For an optimal experience, attendees should plan to bring documentation with them such as:

- Lease
- Proof of income
- Notices about rental and utility arrears.
